Each Saturday afternoon THE DAILY CHIEFTAIN will print the International Sabbath School lesson for the following Sabbath.

This office will very soon be connected with the central station of the telephone system; then if anything happens at home and you don't have time to rush down town to tell it, just call us up and give it to THE DAILY CHIEFTAIN by wire.

Louis Muldrow brought down the house at the court room this afternoon by putting up his left hand when Major Winston was trying to qualify him for jury service.

One gentleman has already subscribed for THE DAILY CHIEFTAIN for a tolerably long time. C. W. Poole writes: "Send me your daily as long as you run it." He's a life subscriber, sure.

Postmaster D. A. Frayser has tendered his resignation as postmaster at Vinita, on account of poor health. It is said that Joe Butler, of the Badgett Mercantile Company, has been recommended for his successor.

Love in a Cottage.

The wedding of Mr. Lewyn Crockett and Miss Mary Dubois, last night at the Presbyterian parsonage, was a very pretty affair. A number of friends of the young couple were present and the congratulations were hearty. Quite a number of presents were received. The couple go to honeymooning at once to a cottage near the city.

Mrs. Soper's Guest.

Miss Clara Francis is the guest of Mrs. P. L. Soper. The lady's father was state treasurer of Kansas some years since, and afterwards established a bank in New York, but by reason of his poor health was compelled to return to Kansas.

Cherokee Cases Filed.

Wm. Fry, Cherokee clerk of Cooweescoowee district, filed one hundred and sixty-three cases with the United States court here this morning. This was the number of cases left on the tribal docket when the Curtis law went into effect. Sixty-one of these cases are criminal, and one hundred and two civil. It is not definitely known, but the probability is, that nothing more will be done with them. The cases are transferred according to law, and Mr. Fry has the United States clerk's receipt for them.

Doings of the City Council.

City council met last night at the call of the mayor and there were present, T. M. Burlington, mayor, O. Bagby, W. R. Badgett, J. R. Sheehan, L. W. Burlington, of the council, and George Biakeney, recorder.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

By act of the council the room over the postoffice was secured for mayor's office and for the use of council, at a rental of one hundred dollars a year.

The committee on ordinances was required to draft an ordinance empowering the mayor to summons witnesses before him to give testimony under oath concerning offenses committed within the corporate limits of Vinita.

The same committee was also instructed to draft an ordinance providing for the levying and collecting of taxes.

An ordinance providing for compensation of recorder was discussed and referred to the committee on ordinances.

Ordinance number eleven, providing for working streets and alleys was amended by providing that street tax be paid to the street commissioner instead of to the recorder as heretofore.

The ordinance committee reported an ordinance prohibiting the loafing or loitering of boys on the streets, alleys and parks of the town after 9:30 p. m. without legal excuse. This applies to boys under the age of 16 years.

Accounts for street work were presented and allowed, amounting to $109.26.

The recorder was instructed to draw warrants on the town treasurer for $40, for the marshal, and the same amount for the deputy, for services rendered.

At the next meeting of the council settlement with the city officers will be had and a financial report of the town made.

The Jennie Holman Company.

The opera house was crowded to the very doors last night to witness the presentation of "Fauchon, the Cricket" by the Jennie Holman company, and every one came away delighted with the play.

The company is a very strong one. It is perhaps the most entertaining of the repertoire companies who have played here at popular prices, and regardless of prices the Jennie Holman company is an exceptionally good one.

Those who attended last evening had the pleasure of seeing a good play rendered in an excellent manner. Everyone went away well pleased. The smile and the tear were well commingled. Little Vavine, the baby actress, by her singing and dancing surprised all by her artistic work for one so very young.

What with Miss Holman, the superb actress, and the laugh-provoking Didier, and a generally strong company, and little Vavine, and Miss Emison and Mr. Smith, and the war-graph pictures, the show of last evening was a particularly enjoyable one.

Tonight Jana Eyre will be given by this company.

Miss Holman as Fauchon was all that could be desired and carried off the honors of the evening, and the company has already become a favorite with Pittsburg theatre goers.—Pittsburg Daily Tribune, Oct. 4.

Jennie Holman and her big company, numbering eighteen people, will be at the opera house next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday playing three great plays, "Fauchon, the Cricket," "The Daughter of the Regiment" and "The Police Inspector." Ladies free Monday night 71 accompanied by any person with a paid ticket. Prices, 25, 50, and 75 cents.
